PINNACLE PROFESSIONAL TEAM ATTENDING:

Kelly Loya, CPhT, CPC-I, CHC, CRMA – Associate Partner

Kelly brings 25 years of administrative, operational and clinical experience in the health care field. With over 12 years serving in a consulting role, Kelly has leveraged her past experience in coding/billing, pharmacy, first responder and nursing studies to provide a solid foundation on which to tackle complex issues for clients. Kelly assists clients in identifying strategic solutions by targeting: project parameters to identify risk, opportunities for improved compliance with government payor requirements and operational efficiencies. She performs quality assurance and audit functions for a wide range of providers. Her diverse skills are often utilized in comprehensive assessment projects involving pharmacy billing and operations, durable medical equipment, ambulance services, physician and hospital outpatient charging concepts.

Clayton Northrop, JD - Consultant

Clay joined Pinnacle in 2015 and has specific experience in physician compensation FMV determination, transaction compliance and regulatory issues, and financial analysis. He specializes in developing and evaluating physician compensation programs and provider alignment strategies. Prior to Pinnacle, Clay spent five years practicing law which included working as an attorney for Bryan Cave LLP on transactional and litigation matters.
